Securing Your Buckets

- By default, all newly created buckets are PRIVATE.
- You can set up access control to your buckets using:
  - Bucket Policies - Applied at a bucket level.
  - Access Control Lists - Applied at an object level.
- S3 buckets can be configured to create access logs, which log all requests made to the S3 bucket. These logs can be written to another bucket.